

SUPPORT SOCIAL PROGRESS

How can you support the ICF Foundation?

It takes many hands to build the work we do today and in the future. In addition to volunteering for a pro bono coaching project, there are many different ways in which you can give to the ICF Foundation.

"Last year I was excited to see that the global company I work for would match my volunteer hours with a small donation per hour to a charity of my choice. I immediately contacted them and had the ICF Foundation added as a Charity in the program. Since then I have been able to direct donations to the Foundation to help further its work."

—Brett Walker, ACC (New Zealand)

"Professional coaches are in a unique and powerful position to create meaningful change, and the ICF Foundation supports coaching initiatives through ICF Chapters and ICF Members to ignite positive change around the globe. Our coaching profession thrives on collaboration and generosity, and a donation to the ICF Foundation is a remarkable way to show our gratitude to each other and to our profession."

—Jeff Nally, PCC (USA)

"When I think about how much I've received from ICF—in terms of leadership opportunities, personal and professional development, and exceptional coaching from ICF-credentialed coaches—there is no question about me giving back (or paying forward!). The ICF Foundation is poised to do so much good in the world, and I'm delighted to be a proud supporter of their work."
